

ARTHWAKE AT DEVIL'S ELBOW

Now Scotty Wiped Out Gambling.

Story of Laramie After It Changed From Wild and Woolly.

Story of Tinorns Ended When an Efficient City Marshal Enforced the Law.

By W. H. Bramel.

Laramie had changed from a wild and woolly frontier town to a respectable city. The process by which the change was accomplished was simple. The old marksmanship of the Sheriff and his deputies and the activity of the vigilantes had made that locality an undesirable abode for thugs and desperadoes. While the Sheriff and the vigilantes were making the environment unpleasant for the outlaw element, James Scully, then mayor, was making the good of efficient City Marshal, was making in his lawless hands hardly worth the living for tinorns, fleecers and barroom brawlers. With Scotty law was law, and there were no compromises. To a time-worn Mayor who suggested a more lenient policy, Scotty replied: "Justice on the one side or the other and there is no middle ground."

Tinorns Day Ends.
The glory of the tinorns day ended when Scotty, after many trials and hardships, succeeded in making a tinorn a rogue, a vagabond, a "King of Hearts" sentenced to a term of hard labor. Scotty's chain gang under the daily orders. "Ye will finish that chain of mine before ye get out of here, or I will have ye in the penitentiary."

Wave of Reform Sweeps Onward.
Notwithstanding the good things accomplished, the wave of reform swept onward. It was known that the love of green cloth still polluted men's souls and depleted their purses. Ministers preached against it, good people talked against it, and at last public opinion prevailed. The existence of the ordinance as Scotty's excuse for enforcing it.

Scotty Enforced Ordinance.
The day the ordinance took effect Scotty was as busy as a whirling dervish. He had to see that the ordinance was enforced, and that the law was the law. He had to see that the ordinance was enforced, and that the law was the law. He had to see that the ordinance was enforced, and that the law was the law.

The "Devil's Elbow."
On a corner in a side street stood a two-story, rickety frame building called the "Devil's Elbow." The name had been bestowed upon the place in former days when the gambling was rampant. It was very much like that of the above of the Prince of Evil. A secret gambling den was being conducted in one of the rooms of this building. Extreme secrecy was maintained. The password had been given only to those discreet souls in whom the gambling instinct was strong. Just at this time the enterprise began to become profitable for the promoters. The unexpected happened. Scotty, having heard of the gambling den, had always had his raids single-handed. They often landed him in the midst of a belligerent crowd of his enemies, but that meant nothing more than a few moments of moderate exercise in the way of light club-swinging for Scotty. He took as much pleasure in fighting his way out of hostile surroundings as in fighting his way in.

Fortune Reveals Many Who Were Kin to Dead Lunatic.
NORFOLK, Va., April 20.—The latest relative of Thomas Yandaw, deceased, who, it recently developed, was largely interested in a California fortune of over $1,500,000, is Antoine Yandaw, of 220 Main street, Chicago Falls, Mass., who says he is the brother of the deceased Norfolk man.

Declines to Discuss Resignation.
ST. LOUIS, April 20.—President Joseph Ramsey, Jr., of the Washburn railroad, whose resignation as president of the Washburn Terminal company was accepted at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday, declines to discuss the matter further than to say that differences as to policy and administration of the company's affairs made it impossible for him to work in harmony with the directors in New York.

WHY THEY ARE HAPPY

TWO NOTABLE RECOVERIES FROM EXTREME DEBILITY.

Husband's Strength Had Been Waning for Three Years, Wife a Sufferer From Female Weakness.

"My strength had dwindled so that I couldn't apply myself to my business with any snap, but was tired and listless all the time," said Mr. Goldstein. "I went to bed completely worn out by my day's work, and when I got up in the morning I didn't feel rested a bit. I had awful headaches, too, and my kidneys got out of order and caused me to have severe pains in the back. At one time I became so feeble that I could not stir from bed for three weeks."

Mr. Goldstein is a young man, and had then but recently established a home of his own. His anxieties increased by the fact that his wife was far from being robust. Speaking of her own state of health during this trying period, Mrs. Goldstein says:

"For two years I had been ill most of the time. Sometimes I was confined to bed for three weeks in succession. I had headaches, kidney trouble, pain about the heart and many more uncomfortable symptoms connected with that weakness to which my sex is peculiarly subject. Trouble had invaded this household and settled in it in just the years that ought to be the very happiest. Physicians could not tell them how to get rid of it."

"A trip was prescribed for my health," said Mr. Goldstein. "It promised well at first, but when I returned I found myself just as badly off as before, and I was utterly discouraged. Then an advertisement and the urgency of some friends led me to try a social treatment until I became completely well. Through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I have now as good health as I ever had in my life."

This is not all, for Mr. Goldstein adds: "The wonderful effect that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had in the case of my husband led me to try them, and they helped me even more quickly than they did him. One box made me decidedly better and a few more cured me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make pure, rich blood and where there is general weakness and disorder that is what the system needs. The peculiar organism of women calls for a special large supply of good blood, and all the cases of prostration and complicated troubles owe their existence to nothing but scanty or vitiated blood. In such cases it is always best to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldstein live at 38 Grove street, East Boston, Mass. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

There was also exhibited the institute's collection of photographs representing every phase of social and industrial betterment in this country, which will be sent this summer to the exposition at Liège, Belgium, in commemoration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Belgian independence. Wm. H. Talman, who has been appointed director of the American section will go to Liège in June to superintend the exhibit.

PERSIA TRIED TO FOOL UNCLE SAM

Made False Statement to Minister.

Failure to Punish Murderers Tried the Patience of Roosevelt.

Represented Guilty Ones Had Been Killed—Complied When Called Down With Emphasis.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Persia tried the patience of the American Government severely last fall because of her failure to punish the murderers of Rev. Benjamin W. Labaree, the American missionary. Six months after the murder and after Mr. Tyler, the American Charge at Tehran, had informed the State department that the accomplices in the murder "would not be arrested unless a peremptory message is sent by the President," Secretary Hay sent a vigorous telegram, of which the following is the official paraphrase appearing in correspondence made public at the State department today.

President Disturbed.

"Mr. Hay states that the President is very much disturbed over the failure of the Persian Government to punish the murderers of Mr. Labaree. If no immediate satisfaction is given he will be constrained to lay the matter before Congress and request such action as may lead to a compliance with our demand for effective justice."

Promises Not Fulfilled.

This brought promises which were not fulfilled. After receiving the official assurance of Mr. Labaree, if no immediate satisfaction is given he will be constrained to lay the matter before Congress and request such action as may lead to a compliance with our demand for effective justice."

Called Down Again.

"Mr. Hay states that the reported failure of the Persian Government to punish the murderers of Mr. Labaree is a source of grave concern to the President, and he cannot permit our just demands to be trifled with or evaded any longer. If no satisfactory action is taken before Congress meets in less than two weeks, the President will be constrained to lay the matter before that body and recommend such action as he shall deem necessary."

This Brought Results.

This brought results. A month later a cable message from the Persian minister to Mr. Labaree received $30,000 cash in gold, and effective and swift punishment of all guilty persons followed.

Observe Passover.

Special Services Mark Beginning of Solemn Season.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The East Side Ghetto began observance of the Passover has begun and will continue one week. Holiday attire is observable throughout the district, and stores owned by orthodox Hebrews were all closed several hours before the usual time.

KILLED BY AN AUTO.

Scores of Police Reserves Search for the Owner.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Scores of police reserves were turned out in Brooklyn early today in an effort to trace an automobile party responsible for the death of an Italian on Coney Island avenue. All the ferries and bridges to New York were placed under extra guard, but the automobilists escaped.

Statue of Mrs. Gilbert.

NEW YORK, April 20.—A movement has been inaugurated here to erect a life-sized statue in marble of the late actress, Mrs. J. H. Gilbert. The marble tribute to the famous actress will show her in the character of "Granny" which she was playing in Chicago at the time of her death.

ECZEMA A FLESH FIRE

Those afflicted with Eczema know more than can be told of the suffering imposed by this "flesh fire."

It usually begins with a slight redness of the skin, which gradually spreads, followed by blisters and pustules discharging a thin, sticky fluid that dries and scales off, leaving an inflamed surface, and at times the itching and burning are almost unbearable. While any part of the body is liable to be attacked, the hands, feet, back, arms, face and legs are the parts most often afflicted. The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The circulation becomes loaded with fiery acid poisons that are forced through the glands and pores of the skin which set the flesh aflame. Since the cause of the disease is in the blood it is a waste of time to try to cure it with local applications; the cause must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. has no equal as a remedy for Eczema; it enters the blood and forces out the poison through the natural channels, and builds up the entire system. The skin becomes smooth and soft again, and the Eczema is cured. Cases that have persistently refused to be cured under the ordinary treatment yield to its purifying, cooling effect on the blood.
